Pastor's Note

I am excited about Sunday's service! We have the children's choir, under the leadership of Barbara Still, Laron Stone and Ellen Thompson presenting a special Christmas program. It is always a joy to hear the good news through a child's heart and song. I know that you will be present to support these wonderful children as they minister to us.

Also, I will introduce to you this Sunday Ms Pam Freeman. Pam has traveled extensively on International Mission Projects and recently visited the home church of Lottie Moon in Pengali, China. You will be thrilled to see and hear how God is at work through Southern Baptist Missions.

Will you prayerfully consider a gift to this year's Lottie Moon Christmas Offering? We truly are His Heart/His Hands/His Voice to a world in need of a Savior.

I look forward to seeing you in church on Sunday. Gary

HELP!! HELP!! HELP!!
Last week we had a visit by Officer Ivey of the North Charleston Police Dept. He came by to asked the good people of CRBC for help. The children at the Carolina Youth Development Center (previously known as Oak Grove Orphanage Home) are in dire need of basis items such as toothbrushes, soaps, shampoo, toothpaste, toiletries. He said "When I asked one little boy what he wanted for Christmas, he told me a toaster so they can have toast for breakfast." Wow, that really brings it into prospective. CYDC is interim care for 30-40 kids of all ages, waiting for foster homes or to be placed back into their original home. These little people have been thru so much. CYDC budget has been cut and they are running on bare minimum. Boxes will be placed in the vestibule. Please help fill them up..

The First Baptist Church of Columbia
Annual Christmas Program
This Saturday, December 10th
A group will leave Cooper River Baptist Church at 10:30AM. Please note change in departure time. There are still 7 tickets left, so call the office to reserve your ticket today. It will be on a "first call, first serve" basis. We will have a light lunch in route and have dinner at the Lizard Thicket Restaurant after the program, so you will need to bring money for the meals. Trip packages, with menu, are available in the office. Call Karen at 747-7389 to added to the list.

Wednesday Night Schedule
Children's Music Ministry— 6:00PM
Youth Jumpstart—6:30PM
Prayer Meeting/Bible Study—6:30PM
Choir Practice—7:15PM

SUNDAY SNACKS
12/11— Sue Tincher & Jerry Hopper
12/18—Megan Ward, Jessica & Randall Carter
"Selfless servants are motivated by love, not rewards and recognition. That's part of what makes them truly great."

If you are unable to bring snacks on the Sunday you are scheduled, please swap with a class member or call Marvaline Morris @ 744-1484.

To contribute snacks/donations for the welcoming center, please call.
